MIDDLEBURY DEFEATS STEVENS, 13 TO 7

Bresnahan and Bowers Starred for Middlebury.

Saturday, October 14, at Hoboken, N. J., our football team administered a decisive defeat to Stevens Institute of Technology. During the first two periods it was anybody's game, but then our superior weight and endurance began to tell and at the end of the third quarter it was only a qu stion of how large the score would be. Bowers and Bresnahan clearly out-played any man on the Stevens team, and time and again in the second half tore thru the line or circled the ends for sizeable gains.

Stevens' only tally came in the first quarter. After Pollard had been forced to kick, Stevens carried the ball back ten yards to our 30 yard line. A forward pass netted them twenty yards more and from there the Stevens fullback carried the ball over for Stevens only score.

Middlebury got two touchdowns in the third quarter. Bresnahan carried back a punt twenty yards to the Stevens forty-five yard line. Four plunges by Pollard and Bowers carried it fourteen yards more, and on the first down Bresnahan added fourteen yards more. From there Bowers carried the ball over for a touchdown at the extreme corner of the field.

A few minutes later we got our second score by taking advantage of Stevens' misplays. When we were on their twenty yard line with the ball in their possession, they fumbled and recovered on their one yard line. On an attempted kick Good broke through and blocked the ball making the feature play of the game. Horsford fell on the ball over the goal line and Lang kicked the goal.

The lineup:

MIDD'S ENROLLMENT NUMBERS 368

Largest Freshman Class in History of Institution. Number of Additions to Upper Classes.

The enrollment for the class of 1920 shows it to be the largest in the history of the institution. Last year's class entered with 108 new students, while this year the number totals up to 123. Besides this, there are five new students entering with advanced standing, making a total of 128 new students. Last year the entire student body numbered 342 students while this year there are 368, an increase of 26, or about 15 per cent. These figures are not phenomenal, but they show a healthy increase, which is to be preferred to any mushroom growth. Following is a list of the new students by classes:

STUDENT GOVERNMENT IN MEN'S DORMITORIES

Hepburn, Painter, and Starr, Adopt Similar Systems.

A meeting of the residents of Hepburn Hall was held in the social hall, October 13, for the purpose of establishingsome form of student government in the dormitory. Prof. Perkins of the Student Residence Committe addressed the meeting, and said that the committee of which he was the spokesman had been investigating the problems of student conduct in the men's college for the past year and had decided that in order to solve this problems, either the faculty must take the matter in hand, or some sort of organization for self-government must be established by the students themselves. This organization would work in conjunction with a member of the faculty who would be known as the faculty adviser. In this way it was hoped to correct nearly all misconduct before it was necessary to bring the matter to the attention of the administration committee.

He suggested that a committee of five, one from each floor, be appointed to draw up a constitution for the above purpose. It was voted unanimously by those present that the plan be adopted and the following men were chosen to serve on this committee: H. Davis, Harrison, Edmunds, Chalmers and Lee.

Last Thursday evening another meeting was called at which the constitution drawn up by the committee was presented to the men and unanimously accepted. The constitution reads as follows:

PREAMBLE.

We, the residents of Hepburn Hall, in order to promote the welfare of Middlebury College and to secure for ourselves the best living conditions hereby become formally associated for the furtherance of these ends and agree to be governed by the following:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I. OFFICERS.

Section 1. The officers shall be: a president and an executive committee consisting of five members from the two upper classes, one from each floor. The president shall be, ex-officio, chairman of this committee.

Section 2. Election. Officers shall be elected by the residents of Hepburn Hall at the beginning of each semester.

Section 3. Duties. It shall be the duty of the president to call and preside on all meetings.

It shall be the duty of the executive committee to enforce the dormitory rules contained in this constitution.

ARTICLE II. DORMITORY RULES.

Section 1. College and personal property shall be respected.

Section 2. "Quiet Hours" shall be observed by all from 7 to 10 p. m., Saturday excepted.

Section 3. The use of intoxicating liquors is forbidden.

Section 4. Nothing shall be thrown

Athletic Support.

The ability to view college life in its entirety and weigh the relative importance of each student activity, as well as the purely scholastic, in an impartial and fair-minded manner is one which few of us possess even to a considerable degree. Doubtless no one ever arrives at the point where his judgment is thoroughly impartial. The regrettable fact is that very few even approximate to what may be termed a fair-minded balance of values. Some are prone to emphasize one activity to such an extreme that every other will have no real significance for them, while others will perhaps swing as far the other way, Naturally, those who are leaders in college life will emphasize the interests which they represent, and it should be so, provided a due recogni tion is given to the others which together make our life well rounded.

We should, however, sharply censure ourselves as a whole for the lack of support accorded our college activities which are of such vital importance in promoting our growth. We here emphasize varsity athletics. A relatively small number can play on the football squad, but all can support the work of those few who give so much of their energy for the honor of old Midd. What have we to say to this charge? What excuse have we to offer in exchange for our absense at cheer practice, for instance?.

What do we mean by college spirit if it fails to get us out for twenty minutes each week to keep our throats in practice and our team enthusiastic? If a defeat affects us with slight concern, why should the TEAM fight to the last inch for victory? If we will not do our part, why should they do theirs? It is no more their peculiar business to maintain the honor of the college than it is ours.

Let us stop crabbing and get busy. When a just appeal is made for our loyal support, we will respond with the old spirit that defies defeat. If something is wrong, do not be afraid to say so or take positive measures to remedy it.

Once More.

Has the new song book for Middlebury been forgotten already? Certainly not much enthusiasm has been manifested concerning it. In 1913 a committee was appointed to get together material for a song book and now in 1916, three years later, we are still waiting to see something done in this direction. What is the trouble? What is lacking? Not interest. Not talent, certainly. It seems to be a leader, someone who will feel responsible for the project and see it through. Perhaps this is an opportunity for the class of 1917 to leave the college something for which they will be remembered. Will '17 accept the challenge to leave Middlebury a song book?

The committee has on desposit in the banks $100.00 with interest since 1913. There formerly was a Middlebury song book, and the publisher still retains the old plates, which, if used in making up the new book, would serve to greatly lessen the cost.

The Chapel Services.

Do we unjustly interfere if, in these columns, there appears a complaint against a part of the student body casting an ungentlemanly name upon us all? As we daily enter the new chapel and quietly take our places in that structure built for a purpose, as the organ fills us with a reverent spirit, what is the excuse for maring the service by a careless removal of the hymn books from the racks? Not that the noise can be absolutely avoided but a little care would obviate the difficulty. If it means nothing to us, let us at least have respect for the feelings of others.

Increased Interest in Music.

Much has been done this year to improve the musical organizations of the college, particularly the band and the orchestra. Mr. Vittum has been secured to take charge of them. Several new instruments have been purchased by the college and more will be purchased if necessary. Mr. Vittum will give instructions to any one who desires it on any instrument. There is a good deal of talent in the freshman class and a goodly number of freshmen have come out for rehearsals. Mr. Phillips, the new instructor of Romance Languagues, renders invaluable assistance.

The women of the college who can play have been urged to take part in the orchestra. President Thomas desires an orchestra which can play, not only college songs and popular airs, but music which will be a source of education and inspiration. It is his desire to have an orchestra which will play at the chapel services in the Mead Memorial chapel.

To further interest in these organizations a member of one of them may take a music course as an extra course without the payment of the $10 required for an additional subject.

Silver Bay Club to Give Masquerade Dance!

A masqnerade dance is to be given next Friday evening from seven to eight o'clock in Pearsons Hall for the benefit of the Silver Bay Club. The club is greatly in debt and this dance is designed to help make up this deficit, and take the place of the entertainment which the Dramatic Club would ordinarily give at this time. It is desired that the girls go in couples, thus half the girls taking the part of men. A masquerade dance always has an air of mystery around it, therefore publish not abroad the name of your partner or the design of your costume. The charge is ten cents a couple. Near the end of the dance, prizes will be awarded to the most original and interesting make-up and all will then unmask. This dance is confined to the women's college, but may be followed by another of a different but interesting nature, perhaps in the gymnasium.

Enthusiastic Union Meeting.

The first business meeting of the Union was held Thursday evening, October 12, in the gymnasium. It was preceded by the rendering of college songs and yells under the leadership of Reynolds and Lee. The latter proposed that on the following Tuesday afternoon cheering practise for the freshmen be held on the gymnasium steps, this place being more convenient than Porter Field. He asked that as many men as possible from the three upper classes be present to help by their knowledge of the cheers. A considerable number of the upper classmen agreed to attend the practice on that day.

Under the head of regular business the Treasurer's report, the report of the chairman of the Social committee, and that of the College Welfare committee were heard. Various plans were suggested for getting more men to come to the Union meetings, as it is very important that every man in college cooperate with the Union if it is to be an effective organization. The best plan suggested was that a roll call be taken at each meeting and have the men regard it a duty to answer to their names. It was also suggested that a man be elected to take care of all the finances that come under the jurisdiction of the Union and that the treasurers of the various activities make their reports to him. In this way it is thought the affairs could be managed in a much more business-like manner.

Dr. Lambert gave a short talk in which he presented a plan for the organization of an Outing club here. He said that it would be a great benefit to all concerned to have a club of this kind at Middlebury as it would not only train the men but would also develop their grit and perseverance. He spoke of the great success of the Outing club of Dartmouth. This club was started in a very small way but now Carnival week at Dartmouth is the gala event of the year, even surpassing Junior week at that institution. Slides of the outing work at Dartmouth will be procured and shown here some evening to all the men interested in such a club and then if the men are in favour of establishing a like organization here, definite action will be taken. This plan met with the hearty approval of the fellows.

The editor of the Campus took advantage of the occasion to lay before the students the aims and needs of the college paper. He stated that it was the earnest desire of the Campus Board to enlarge the paper, but that this could not be done until the management had paid off old debts, and to that end he urged that every student help out by subscribing to the Campus. The meeting then closed with a couple of lusty cheers, led by Davis '17.

Open House in Hepburn.

On Wednesday evening, October 24, Hepburn Hall will be thrown open to faculty, students, and townspeolpe.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

At the Y. W. C. A. meeting on October 12th a recognition service for new members led by the president, Miss Helen Simms, was held in in addition to the regular program conducted by Miss Lucy Smith.

On October 19th Miss Katherine Ball spoke on "Campus Ideals and Standards." The musical part of the program was furnished by Miss Marion Dean and Miss Marguerite Jones.

On October 27th the meeting will be held in Pearsons Social Hall at 4:30, where you are invited to spend "An Afternoon in Japan." The program is in charge of Miss Helen Clift. Your money will help to support Miss Baker and her work in Japan.

Under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, milk chocolate is being sold on the hill. The proceeds are for the purpose of sending delegates to the Silver Bay Conference next June.

"Pay-Day."

"Pay-Day" was observed in the Women's college last Saturday October 14, in Pearsons Hall, from one to two o'clock. The girls who went to Silver Bay last year learned that this plan was carried out in several other colleges and it was decided to try it here. Owing to the enthusiasm and splendid co-operation of all the girls, it was a decided success and it is hoped that it will be followed out again next year.

The treasurers of the different organizations reported as follows:

Y. W. C. A.	$ 94 00
Student Gov't.	70 00
Musical Association	7 00
Athletic "	46 00
Doshisha	60 00
Kaleidoscope Taxes	106 00
Total	$383 00

Senior Council.

The first meeting of the Senior Council was held Tuesday evening October 10th. To the newcomers we might say that this Council is a group of seniors composed of one man from each fraternity and a neutral man, all elected by the student body. Their powers are of a very general nature, including such matters as freshman conduct and all things vital to the interests of the men of Middlebury.

Mason was elected chairman of the organization and Ottman, secretary.

The principal subject of discussion was the freshman situation. The date for the annual P-rade was set for the afternoon of October 21st, when Middlebury plays New York State Teachers College. The hat rush will be held Saturday October 28., the day of the R. P. I. game here. It was decided to postpone the rope pull until spring, when the sophomore and freshman classes will struggle to see who pulls the other thru the hockey pond.

Freshman Election.

The first meeting of the class of 1920 was held in the Hemicircle Tuesday evening Octrber 10, at 7:15. As is customary, Prof. Wetherell presided, and the class proceeded to elect officers for the year as follows:

President, Francis N. Hinchey, Rutland; vice-president Miss Francis L. Requa, Tarrytown, N. Y.; treasurer, Maurice E. Walbridge, Cabot, Vt.; secretary, Miss Florence Millard, Tarrytown, N. Y. Maroon and black were adopted as the class colors.

Section 5. Magazines and newspapers must not be mutilated or moved from the Union room.

ARTICLE III. PUNISHMENT.

Section 1. In case any individual or group of men violates any of the above rules so that infractions constitute a serious menace to the welfare of the college and the collective life of the hall, the executive committee shall turn such a case over to the administration board of the college, provided the offender or offenders have been duly warned of such action by the committee in the presence of the faculty adviser.

ARTICLE IV. AMENDMENTS.

Section 1. This constitution may be amended at any time by a majority vote of the resident of Hepburn Hall.

Danold '17 was elected president of the association and Doctor Harrington was unanimously elected as the faculty adviser. It was voted that the committee chosen to draw up the constitution should become the executive committee for the first semester.

Painter and Starr Halls have adopted similar constitution for self government so that now all the men's dormitories are under this system.

ALUMNI NOTES.

Many of the last year graduates attended the Teachers' Convention held in Burlington on October 12, 13 and 14, and spent some time on the hill with friends on their return. They were as follows: Ruth Keets '16, Harriett Myers '16, Roberta Arnold '16, Vera Arnold '16, Marjorie Lee '16, Ruth Greeley '16, Ruth Kendall '15, Laura Wallbridge '15, Isabella Grant '16, Adalaide Ross '15, Fanny Gill '15, Wenona Shattuck '16, Mary Halpin '16, Isabelle Griffith '16 and Katherine Hobbs '16.

'13. Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Frances Williams and Mr. Robert Meggy. After a short trip they will settle in Center Bridge, N. Y. Mrs. Meggy is a member of the Alpha Chi sorority.

'17. Miss Letitia Calhoun entertained Saturday afternoon, October 14, in honor of Misses Katherine Hobbs, Ruth Keet, and Harriet Myers of the class of '16. Those present were Katherine Ball, Alice Harriman, Louise Reynolds, Doris Richards, Helen Clift, Dorothy Brown and Dorothy Brewster. Miss Hobbs is located in Springfield this year, Miss Myers in Orleans, and Miss Keet in Newport.

'16. Miss Roberta Arnold, who is teaching at Castleton Normal school, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends on the hill after attending the convention. She was accompanied by Miss Davis who teaches drawing at Castleton.

'13. Bessie Cudworth has a position as teacher in Montpelier, Vt.

'13. Ralph Hedges, who is teaching at Bristol, spent the week-end in Middlebury.

Among the guests on the hill for the week-end were Marjorie Lee '16, Laura Walbridge '15, Ruth Kendall '15, Isabelle Grant '16, Louise Nelson '16, and Miss Allan '98.

Improvements in Starr Library

The Starr Library is undergoing several improvements made possible thru the generosity of Dr. Starr. In addition to a refinished floor and new seats, new plumbing and lighting are being put in as rapidly as possible. The catalogue file has been supplemented by a new cabinet.

But the greatest improvement will be added a little later. A third set of stacks will be put above the present two sets, thus making another floor in the rear section of the building. All familiar with the library will enjoy noting these improvements which will add much to the facility of using it.

Honor for Middlebury.

That Middlebury was well represented at the 67th annual convention of the Vermont State Teachers' Association at Burlington can be easily seen from the following notes of the convention:

Dr. Howard gave an address at the opening session, taking as his subject "The Junior High School."

Prof. Lewis J. Hathaway was elected secretary of the Vermont Music Teachers' Association.

Prof. Skillings was chosen president of the Vermont group of the New England Modern Language Association.

Prof. Robinson presented a paper on "Oral Work in Modern Languages."

A short meeting of the Junior Class was held Oct. 17, at which the Prom. committee was announced by the president. It is composed of the following: Anderson, chairman; Miss Champagne, Mr. Chapman, Miss Norris, Mr. Allyn, Miss Dean, Mr. Harris, Miss Harris, Mr. Fullington.

Wheelock was elected chairman of the Junior Play committee and has since posted his committee which is as follows: Miss Webster, Miss Clift Miss Newton and Messrs. Drew, Mudge, and Whitney.

The meeting was closed by singing and cheering.

Sigma Kappa.

The members of Mu of Sigma Kappa celebrated the fifth anniversary of the establishment of their chapter at the sorority rooms October 13. The following alumnae were present: Miss Adalaide Ross '15, Miss Harriet Grandey ex-'15, and Miss Vera Arnold '16.

Senior Class Election.

At a meeting of the Senior Class, the following officers were elected for the year: President, John Reynolds; vice-president, Katherine Ball; secretary, Elizabeth Barrett; treasurer, Arthur Vaughn.

Appeal for Support.

Manager Towne recently followed an announcement in chapel with a very spirited and well-timed talk to the football men of Middlebury comparing them with those of other colleges to the effect that more "Pep" would be of advantage. This was followed later by a similar appeal by Cheer-leader Lee to the student body to show signs of life and appreciation of those who have so creditably upheld our place in intercollegiate athletics. Captain Lang has made a personal appeal to the fellows to sacrifice a portion of their time, if necessary, to turn out a large football squad. It is hoped that all concerned will respond to these earnest requests.
